
Avendus Capital advises CitiusTech on a strategic investment in FluidEdge Consulting

Mumbai, Aug 29, 2018

CitiusTech, a leading provider of healthcare technology solutions and services, headquartered in Mumbai, announced today that it has made a strategic investment in FluidEdge Consulting (FluidEdge), a national healthcare management consulting company headquartered in Philadelphia, PA.

Avendus Capital was the exclusive financial advisor to CitiusTech on the transaction.

FluidEdge focuses its capabilities within the operations and IT areas of health plan, life sciences and provider organizations. The organization has an experienced team of healthcare technology and management consulting professionals with deep expertise in business, operations and technology, along with a strong understanding of emerging trends in value-based care.

“FluidEdge has excellent business and technology consulting capabilities. Our partnership with FluidEdge enables us to strategically engage with healthcare customers, leverage technology to define enterprise solutions, and build and deploy these solutions to drive business performance,” said Rizwan Koita, CEO of CitiusTech.

CitiusTech has successfully developed deep and long-term relationships with leading healthcare organizations and technology companies. The company reached over $130 million in revenue in 2017 with a CAGR of over 30% over the last five years, through a mix of healthcare technology services and platforms. CitiusTech has been ranked in the 2018 Healthcare Informatics (HCI) 100 list, putting it among the top 100 companies in the US healthcare industry for the third consecutive year.

“We are excited to partner with CitiusTech. CitiusTech’s sizeable industry presence and strong technology team complement our core competencies and give us the ability to compete effectively on larger contracts and derive significant cost advantages. We also anticipate multiple opportunities to jointly develop world-class solutions to address complex industry needs. We are looking forward to this partnership,” says Shawn Archambault, President of FluidEdge.
