
Avendus advises Lohika on its strategic acquisition by Altran

July 20, 2016

Avendus Capital is pleased to share that Altran has signed definitive agreements to acquire Lohika. Lohika is a leader in digital product development space. It offers premium software engineering services to leading technology companies through delivery centers in Eastern Europe. Avendus Capital acted as the exclusive advisor to Lohika and its shareholders.

Puneet Shivam, Head-US and Co-Head of Outsourcing Group, Avendus, said, “As digital capabilities becomes a strategic imperative for enterprises, we continue to witness strong interest and investments in the digital software development space. Lohika strategically extends Altran's already strong competitive position through cutting edge capabilities, marquee client base, attractive market and delivery footprint. This Altran-Lohika combination is unique given their complimentary yet synergistic strengths and creates a market leader for next-gen product development services.”
